

Terrence Agard

Terrence Agard has worked in various roles in the Informational Technology field in Silicon Valley, for over twenty years. Prior to working in IT, Mr. Agard was a High School Teacher and Coach (Soccer, Basketball and Volleyball) in the US Virgin Islands (USVI) for over a decade. He was also an entrepreneur during the period 1988 to 1995, involved in selling sports equipment in the USVI.

Mr. Agard attended Queen's College, Guyana from 1970 to 1977, and obtained his Bachelor's in Civil Engineering from the University of California, Irvine.

Mr. Agard resides in California.

Yvonne Atherly-John

Yvonne Atherly-John, M.D., M.P.H. is an Attending Physician in the Department of Pediatric Emergency Medicine at Emory University School of Medicine, Children's Health Care of Atlanta; and Assistant Professor of Pediatrics, Emory University SOM. Prior to her present academic appointment, Dr. Atherly-John was an Assistant Professor of Pediatrics at the Albert Einstein College of Medicine from 2001-2020.

Dr. Atherly-John attended The Bishops' High School from 1972-1979. While at BHS she was sports captain of Allen House from 1978 to 1979. She obtained her MD from the University of Havana, Cuba and holds a (Master of Public Health) MPH degree from the Albert Einstein College of Medicine. Her love of languages also led her to obtain a diploma in Spanish from the University of Havana and a diploma in French at L'alliance Francaise.

Dr. Atherly-John's main professional interests are disaster preparedness for the pediatric population and community outreach by health care professionals. She enjoys teaching medical students, residents and fellows. Her continued interest in sports led her to complete the 2013 New York Marathon and several half marathons.

Dr. Atherly-John resides in Georgia.

Kamrul Baksh

Kamrul Baksh is the Deputy Director with the Guyana Tourism Authority. Prior to this role, Mr. Baksh served in various roles within the Tourism Authority as its Product Development Manager, Senior Officer of Product Development and Certification, and Investment Officer.

Mr. Baksh's special skills include Sustainable Destination Development, Tourism Management and Sustainable Tourism.

Mr. Baksh earned his Bachelor's in Business Management and Business Administration from the University of Guyana. He also earned a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Bedfordshire. Mr. Baksh resides in Guyana.

Marcel Braithwaite

Marcel Braithwaite is the Director of Community Engagement at the New York City Police Athletic League, the Board Chair of the New York State Network for Youth Success, and an Advisory Board Member of the CUNY School of Professional Studies, Youth Studies Program Advisory Board.

Born in New York City, he is a twenty-year youth development professional and a 2015 National Afterschool Ambassador. Mr. Braithwaite is the creator of the PREVENT Group Management Model and is an accomplished facilitator of signature trainings such as Planning to Programs, Assessments, Phases and Pillars, Effective CBO and School Partnerships, and Training Managers to Be Leaders.

Mr. Braithwaite's approach to leadership and management is based on clear vision, commitment to teamwork and an investment in people.

Samuel Brathwaite

Samuel Brathwaite is the founder of Ground Zone Environmental Services, LLC. He holds a Master of Science in Geology.

Mr. Brathwaite is a Professional Geologist, Certified Hydrogeologist and Certified Engineering Geologist with the State of California. He has over thirty years of experience conducting various geological investigations.

He attended The Bishops' High School from 1976 to 1978.

Leeron Brummel

Leeron Brumell is the current Editor-in-Chief and Executive Manager of NCN Inc. Guyana, the largest media house in the country, and one of the largest in the Caribbean.

He has spent twenty-two years in media between Guyana and Trinidad and Tobago. Leeron is also a part-time news anchor and television host.

Mr. Brummel attended The Bishops' High School from 1995 to 2001 and is a former Allen House athlete.

Rosemarie Cadogan

Rosemarie Cadogan is an International Lawyer and Policy Analyst who brings a range of practical and professional experience to her endeavors. Her project and transactional experiences have spanned more than fifteen years, with projects in Guyana and the Caribbean as well as Canada, the United Kingdom, West Africa and the Pacific.

Ms. Cadogan's skillset includes progressive advisory services to governments and regional groupings on maximizing the sustainable management of marine resources. This skillset also involves developing maritime and ocean governance frameworks, incorporating civil society, and stakeholder consultation.

She holds a Master's degree in Marine and Environmental Law from Dalhousie University, Canada, a Post Graduate Diploma in International Relations from the University of Guyana, a Bachelor's in Law from the University of the West Indies, and Project Management Professional qualifications from the University of Westminster, UK. She was admitted to the Bar in Guyana and Canada.

Ms. Cadogan attended The Bishops' High School from 1977 to 1984.

Wil A Campbell

Wil A. Campbell is a Psychologist, Educator and Consultant. He holds advanced degrees in Psychology, Educational Leadership and Grief and Trauma Counseling.

He is an executive member of the Guyana Psychological Association, Managing Director of Solutions Training Consultancy and a lecturer in Psychology at the University of Guyana.

Wil has a passion for promoting mental wellness and helping people achieve their highest potential. He has a keen interest in organic farming and enjoys travel and photography.

He attended The Bishops' High School from 1983 to 1989.

Ramona Chanderballi

Ramona Chanderballi is a Registered Cardiac Sonographer with over ten years of experience in the medical imaging field in Guyana. She is a strong advocate for increased access to modern, state-of-the-art medical imaging services in Guyana.

Ms. Chanderballi holds several titles within the medical imaging field both locally and internationally, and continues to work tirelessly to improve patient outcomes.

Ramona is the Vice Chair of the Allied Health Professionals Council, Ministry of Health, Guyana. She is also a Board Trustee to the World Radiography Education Trust Foundation.

She attended The Bishops' High School from 2003 to 2009.

Christopher Chin

Klaus Christopher Chin is the founder and Managing Director of Trail Masters Adventure Tours, a local tour company that provides tours throughout Guyana, neighboring countries, and the Caribbean. He has been a licensed Tour Operator since January 2022.

Christopher is also a Corporal in the St. John's Ambulance Brigade; President of Society of St. Vincent De Paul, Sacred Heart Parish; Treasurer of the Guyana Hemp Association; Treasurer of Maxido Adult Self-Defense System; Member of Tourism and Hospitality Association of Guyana (THAG), and Visit Rupununi.

Christopher attended St. Roses' High School and currently lives in Guyana.

Keisha Chung

Keisha Chung is the Director of Chung's Global Inc., a Guyanese-owned business that has over the last 13+ years provided quality service in general construction, machine & equipment rental and real estate services to both the public and private sectors of Guyana.

A former student of The Bishops' High School, a mother of two, a youth mentor, a member of the Rotary Club of Georgetown, Mrs. Keisha Chung is limitless. She wears many hats at CGI and is able to advise and guide her team to succession. She is also an experienced businesswoman and a tremendous support to the Projects and Administrative Departments.

Keisha holds a BSc degree in Business Management from the University of Guyana.

Jewel Collier-Swan

Jewel Collier-Swan spent most of her professional life in Development within various international organizations, in areas such as Youth Development, Social & Community Development, Resource Planning and Administration. She worked with small entrepreneurial ventures such as modern cash crop and export farming, commodity imports. The latter four years of her career were in Commercial Business within a Fortune 100 company.

Charwyn David

Charwyn David is an Entrepreneur and Owner of several businesses, the largest of which is Pooch Purrfect, Inc., a one-stop shop for all pet needs, currently servicing the New York area.

A seventeen-year veteran of Wall Street, Mr. David possesses a broad knowledge base in banking and finance that led to his success in structuring and selling complex assets. During his banking career, he worked in several large financial institutions, including JP Morgan Chase, Solomon Smith Barney, ING, and Credit Suisse.

Mr. David attended The Bishops' High School from 1980 to 1986. He was a member of the basketball team that won the 1984, 1985 and 1986 high school championships. He holds a Bachelor of Science in Applied Math and Statistics from Stony Brook University, New York, and an MBA from SUNY Empire State College, New York.

Mr. David currently resides in New York.

Yonnick David

Yonnick David is the Managing Director of Medical Diagnostics Supplies Guyana, Incorporated, a company which he founded in 2018.

He has over fourteen years of experience in management in a range of industries that include entertainment, aviation, and supply chains. His wealth of experience has earned him a creditable reputation for efficiency and innovation.

Mr. David currently resides in Guyana.

Janis Davis-Street

Dr. Davis-Street manages the Global Public Health group of Chevron's Health and Medical department. Her team manages public health programs for the workforce and communities where Chevron operates, provides education and preventive programs, and uses epidemiological tools to evaluate health issues. She also managed Chevron's global wellness portfolio for eleven years.

Janis holds a doctorate in Health Education and Master's degrees in Nutrition and Organizational Leadership. She is credentialed in health education and public health informatics, and has a long history of education outreach and mentoring. Before Chevron, Janis spent 15+ years as a Nutritionist at NASA and was awarded a Silver Snoopy - the US astronaut corporation's highest civilian award - for her contributions to NASA crew health and safety. She has co-authored "Space Nutrition" – a middle school textbook, and publications on wellness, nutrition, and spaceflight, and is an invited presenter on a variety of well-being topics.

She attended The Bishops' High School from 1973 to 1980.

Dr. Davis-Street resides in Texas.

Jo-Ann Davis-Valz

Jo-Ann Davis-Valz is an Actuary and Vice President in the Life and Health Risk Management organization at Swiss Re America Holding Company in Armonk, New York. An active member of the Society of Actuaries in North America and American Academy of Actuaries, Ms. Davis-Valz has been in the actuarial profession since 1988.

Ms. Davis-Valz has a special interest in diversity and inclusion and has mentored several colleagues during her career. She enjoys music, a passion nurtured while at The Bishops' High School, and currently sings with the Stamford Chorale, a community choir. Additionally, Ms. Davis-Valz serves as a member of the Stamford Chorale Board and as the Treasurer of The Bishops' High School Alumni Association New York Tri-State Chapter.

Ms. Davis-Valz attended The Bishops' High School from 1970 to 1977 and was Head Prefect from 1976 to 1977. She holds a Bachelor's in Mathematics, specializing in Statistics, from The University of Waterloo, Canada, a Master of Arts (Econometrics) from Queen's University, Canada, and a Master of Science (Statistics) from Western University, Canada.

Ms. Davis-Valz currently lives in Connecticut.

Kadeem Davis

Kadeem Davis is an attorney-at-law and the Legal Officer of Guyana Telephone and Telegraph Company Limited (GTT). He is also a Director of the Board of The Brass Aluminum and Cast Iron Foundry Limited. Prior to his role in GTT, Mr. Davis was the Company Secretary at Diamond Fire and General Insurance Inc. and Assistant Company Secretary/Legal Officer at Demerara Distillers Limited.

Mr. Davis attended The Bishops' High School from 2003 to 2010. He earned his Bachelor of Laws from The University of Guyana and a Legal Education Certificate and Certificate in Negotiation and Mediation Skills Training from The Hugh Wooding Law School, Trinidad and Tobago. Additionally, he holds an Advanced Certificate in International Arbitration from the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

Elizabeth Deane-Hughes

Elizabeth Deane-Hughes describes herself as an adventurer, artist, seeker, gardener, experimenter and lover and ponderer of life with its expansions.

She attended The Bishops' High School from 1977 – 1985.

Rawle Dundas

Rawle Dundas is a self-employed consultant in Professional Development. He is a certified John C. Maxwell coach, speaker and trainer. He is a former Customer Service Director with Unicomer Guyana.

Mr. Dundas has over three decades of training experience. He has trained leadership in companies, individuals and small groups and has spoken to large groups and at many graduations. He is passionate about leadership and has consistently sought to make a difference in the lives of people with whom he comes into contact.

Mr. Dundas attended The Bishops' High School from 1976 to 1984 and was the Head Prefect in his senior year. He was also a member of the School Board in 2008.

Mr. Dundas currently resides in Guyana.

Lourdeth Ferguson

Lourdeth Ferguson works at the United Nations Population Fund (UNFPA) as an Executive Board Officer and has been a part of the United Nations for over two decades

She is a philanthropist who enjoys engaging with young people. She has led missions and discussion groups in the US, India, Cambodia, Nepal and Guyana, with the goal of empowering women and young people. She serves as the Membership Chair on the Board of the Bishops' High School Alumni Association NY Tri-State chapter and as a member of We Are Gutsy Inc. Both organizations foster education for young people. Lourdeth is also an Area Director for New York Toastmasters Clubs, supporting young professionals in their leadership and public speaking journeys.

Ms. Ferguson attended The Bishops' High School from 1981 to 1986. She holds a Bachelor of Social Science (Sociology) from The University of Guyana, and a Master of Science in Social Sciences with a concentration in International Organizations, from Long Island University and is pursuing a Doctorate of Strategic Leadership at Evangel University.

Ms. Ferguson resides in New York.

Lavern Fraser

Lavern Fraser is an accomplished sports personality who credits her love of netball especially to her introduction to the sport, while at BHS. She has represented Guyana in both netball and basketball in dual capacities of player and administrator.

Ms. Fraser is a two-time awardee of the Female Sports Personality of the Year, and a Sport Coach awardee of the year during her employment at the Ministry of Culture, Youth, & Sports. She was recognized by the Guyana Olympic Association for her contribution, as a Sports Administrator, to the development of female sports. Sports continues to be a very integral part of her life. Ms. Fraser attended The Bishops' High School from 1972 to 1978.

Matthew Gaul

Matthew Gaul is a Tax Auditor at the Guyana Revenue Authority and is Co-Owner of Virtual Solutions Guyana, a company focused on delivering technological solutions to various issues.

Mr. Gaul is a former Youth Parliamentarian. He is extremely passionate about the development of Guyana. In September 2021, he launched a financial literacy podcast titled 'Common Cent$' which seeks to normalize conversations about money and improve the level of financial education and knowledge in Guyana. The podcast is intended to be a composition of Business School and pop culture to ensure that the message is easily digested by all.

Mr. Gaul is also the founder of the popular ECONOME Business Conference & Mixer, Guyana's premier business conference for young professionals, industry leaders, entrepreneurs and financial experts.

He graduated from the University of Guyana with a Bachelor's Degree in Finance with Distinction.

Mr. Gaul resides in Guyana.

Terezinha Gonzales Marques

Terezinha Gonzales Marques is a specialist in Linguistics and Readers Training and Teaching of Portuguese as a Foreign Language. She has been working at the Instituto Guimaraes Rosa/ Cultural Centre Brazil- Guyana in Georgetown since 2018 as a Personal Learning Environment (PLE) teacher, and assumed the general coordination of the institution in 2022.

Ms. Gonzales Marques holds a degree in Letters - Portuguese Language from Universidade Federal do Para (UFPA Federal University of Para). She is currently studying for a professional Master's degree in Education. In her free time, she enjoys spending time with her family and reading good books. She also enjoys traveling and experiencing new places and cultures.

Karen Gordon-Boyle

Karen Gordon-Boyle, M.D., M.P.H., Dr.PH. is the previous Deputy Chief Medical Officer in the Ministry of Public Health in Guyana. Dr. Boyle's contribution to public health in Guyana was recognized in 2016 when she received the PAHO/WHO Public Health Achievement award. In 1995, she co-founded the Eureka Medical Laboratory and Family Clinic, the first ISO-accredited medical laboratory in Guyana.

A Guyana Scholar, Dr. Gordon-Boyle attended The Bishops' High School from 1980 to 1983. She graduated from medical school in Moscow in 1990 then worked as a General Practitioner at the Georgetown Public Hospital. From 1998 to 2002 she served as Director of the National Genito-Urinary Medicine Clinic.

Dr. Gordon-Boyle received her Master's in Public Health from Columbia University, New York and her Doctorate in Public Health from the University of the West Indies, Mona, Jamaica.

Dr. Gordon-Boyle currently resides in Georgetown, Guyana.

Gerry Gouveia

Gerald Gouveia Jr. is an accomplished Aviator and Aviation professional with extensive experience in both military and civilian aviation sectors. He began his education at the School of the Nations in Georgetown, Guyana before moving to Mississauga, Canada to attend Mount Carmel Secondary School.

Mr. Gouveia received his Bachelor's degree in Political Science from York University in Toronto, Canada before pursuing a career in Aviation like his parents, Captain Gerald Gouveia Sr. and Captain Debbie Gouveia.

He currently resides in Guyana.

Evie Gurcharan

Evie Gurchuran is a multi-award-winning tech entrepreneur with a strong focus on social innovation and corporate social mission strategy.

As a software development consultant, Evie combines her technical expertise with her creative vision, to deliver innovative solutions for her clients. Her ability to bridge the gap between technology and business goals has earned her a reputation for delivering high-quality results. In addition, Ms. Gurchuran is a Brand Specialist with a keen eye for branding and campaign management, helping businesses and individuals develop strong and impactful brand identities. Her strategic approach to branding has enabled numerous organizations to effectively communicate their values, and stand out in a competitive market.

Ms. Gurchuran has achieved several awards including a National Youth Award, and the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce and Industry (GCCI) Woman in Business award. Her dedication to creating positive change through her work continues to inspire others and shape the future of tech entrepreneurship in Guyana.

Nigel Harris

Nigel Harris, M.D., Ph.D. is a Physician (Rheumatologist) whose early career involved both biomedical research and medical practice. Together with his colleagues, Dr. Harris was successful in identifying the disorder Antiphospholipid Syndrome by devising a test for this diagnosis. He and his colleagues have won many international awards for this work.

Dr. Harris has held the posts of Dean of Morehouse School of Medicine (1996-2004) in Atlanta, Georgia, Vice Chancellor of the University of the West Indies (2004-2015) and Chancellor of the University of Guyana (2015-2018).

Dr. Harris attended Queen's College from 1958 to 1964. He holds a Bachelor of Science from Howard University, a Master of Philosophy in Biochemistry from Yale University, and medical degrees from the Universities of Pennsylvania and the West Indies, Mona, Jamaica.

Dr. Harris resides in St. Lucia.

Lilith Haynes

Dr. Lilith Haynes is a retired Assistant Dean from Harvard University. While at Harvard, Dr Haynes directed the Institute for English Language Programs (IEL) in the Harvard University Division of Continuing Education from 1993 to 2014, with responsibility for a variety of course offerings in the Extension and Summer School semesters. Additionally, she directed the Summer Intensive Programs for the Harvard Graduate Schools of Education and of Design, the Certificate Program in the Teaching of English as a Second Language, and the Summer English Language Program of the Harvard Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

Under her direction, the IEL also fashioned several versions of the Harvard University English Language Placement Test (HELP) and created several volumes of textbooks in Education, Politics, and the Environment, The Compleat Professional, and two volumes of non-sibi: A Liberal Arts Approach to Mastering English, each containing six graduated readers and apparatus, all of these benchmarked to the HELP.

Dr. Haynes obtained her Bachelor's degree with Honors in French, Latin and Spanish from the University of the West Indies, Cave Hill Campus, a Master's in Linguistics and Ethnobotany from the University of the West Indies Mona Campus, and a Ph.D. in Linguistics from Stanford University. She attended The Bishops' High School from 1958 to 1963.

Dr. Haynes resides in Massachusetts.

Nigel Hughes

Nigel Hughes, Esq. is a Partner of the Law Firm of Hughes, Fields and Stoby and current President of the Guyana Bar Association. He is also Chairman of both Harvest Company Ltd and The Hadfield Foundation. Mr. Hughes was initially responsible for his law firm's Information Technology department and is attributed with its considerable modernization. Hughes, Fields and Stoby is now an international law firm with a significant percentage of its work originating from offshore jurisdictions.

Mr. Hughes has been involved in several significant developments in the fields of advocacy and legal practice in Guyana. His expertise spans several areas: Banking, Commercial Law, Insurance, Intellectual Property, Telecommunications Law, Public Utilities and International business.

As President of the Guyana Bar Association, he was instrumental in convening the Social Partners Initiative which comprises The Bar Association, the Private Sector Commission, and The Trade Union Congress, as a means of engaging diverse groups in a civil exchange of ideas.

Mr. Hughes attended The Bishops' High School from 1980 to 1982. He holds both a Bachelor and Master of Laws from the University College (London). He was admitted to the Bar of the United Kingdom in 1988.

He resides in Georgetown, Guyana.

Tiffany Humphrey

Tiffany Humphrey is an Engineering Technician at ExxonMobil. She previously held the roles of Supply Chain Associate at ExxonMobil and Logistics Controller at Stracon, both in Guyana.

She attended The Bishops' High School from 2008 to 2013. While there, she was the Head of the Debating Team, participated in athletics, and enjoyed Human & Social Biology and Literature as her academic interests. After graduating from Bishops', she attended The School of Nations for A-levels and completed a Diploma in Business Management through the ABE program.

Ms. Humphrey obtained a Bachelor's degree in Business Studies from the University of Bedfordshire and is scheduled to commence studying for a Master's in 2024. She currently resides in Guyana.

Madhavi Indarjeet

Madhavi Indarjeet attended The Bishops' High School during the period 2007-2012

She describes herself as an average student who enjoyed science-related subjects, with a special interest in the environment and climate change.

Ms. Indarjeet pursued a degree in Environmental Studies at the University of Guyana, and made use of every opportunity presented to attend conferences and workshops, while playing active roles in youth groups. She was awarded a scholarship and completed her MSc at the IHE Delft Institute for Water Education.

Ms. Indarjeet was successful in presenting her research at the McNair's Research Conference at Florida International University in 2018.

She currently works as an Environmental, Health and Safety Officer.

Latoya Jack

Latoya Jack is the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Kronoco Safety Solutions Inc., the leading provider of occupational safety & health services, strategies, and solutions in Guyana.

Ms. Jack and her team support her clients by bridging the gap between international standards for occupational safety & health, and local workplace safety culture.

Ms. Jack also founded and manages RoadScape Guyana, a non-profit that seeks to raise awareness for road safety in Guyana, along with its corporate partners.

Kadija Jacobs

Kadija Ema' Jane Jacobs, M.B.B.S. is currently on maternity leave from her role as a Chief Medical Scribe at Summit Health in Texas.

Dr. Jacobs attended the Bishops' High School from 2008 to 2013 before transferring to Queen's College for CAPE studies. While at Bishops' Kadija was an avid student athlete, representing the school in track and field at inter schools, inter zones etc. She also participated in elocution, dancing, and inter-school debates, while maintaining significantly above the 'mark reading goal'.

Dr. Jacobs obtained a Bachelor of Medicine and a Bachelor of Surgery at the University of Guyana where she obtained an award for "Best Research to Influence Health Policy in Guyana". She is married and has a young son.

Simone A. James-Alexander

Dr. Simone A. James Alexander is Professor of English, Africana Studies and Women and Gender Studies, affiliate member of the Russian and East European Studies Program and Latin America and Latino/Latina Studies at Seton Hall University. She previously served as Chair of the Department of Africana Studies and Director of the Africana Studies Program. She serves on the Literature and Language Review Panel for the Ford Foundation Fellowships.

Dr. Alexander received her Ph.D. from Rutgers University, New Brunswick in Comparative Literature. Her primary fields of research include women, gender and sexuality studies, post-colonial literature, Transnational Feminist Theory, Caribbean studies, migration and diaspora studies. She is the author of the award-winning monograph, African Diasporic Women's Narratives: Politics of Resistance, Survival and Citizenship which also received Honorable Mention by the African Literature Association Book of the Year Scholarship Award.

She is also the author of Mother Imagery in the Novels of Afro-Caribbean Women and coeditor of Feminist and Critical Perspectives on Caribbean Mothering.

Dr. Alexander resides in New Jersey.

Trevor James

Trevor James is a Chartered Chemical Engineer with experience in Process Design, Process Systems Engineering, Plant Operations and Project Development Planning in cane sugar, industrial gases and Oil & Gas sectors.

Mr. James attended The Bishops' High School from 1975 to 1977.

Onika Jervis

Onika Jervis is a strategic community mobilizer and civic-minded executive, focusing on the importance of creating circulatory sustainable economies in the Caribbean diaspora. She has more than twenty-five years of professional experience in community wellness advocacy, higher education, and non-profit management.

Born in Guyana when growing and eating fresh food was the norm and living with less was more, Onika is now a social entrepreneur at the forefront of food and environmental justice and community wellness. As the CEO of Maraka Consulting LLC, whose heart never left Guyana, Onika currently splits her time between New Orleans and Guyana, and is the founder of STRIDE592, a Guyanese Homecoming Celebration of Healthy Living, Joy, Family, and Community aimed at building a healthy nation one 5K race at a time.

Ms. Jervis graduated from the State University of New York at New Paltz with her B.S. in Environmental Biology and M.Ed. in Educational Supervision and Management. She is also a certified outdoor hike leader, a Mental Health First Aid Instructor, a two-time marathoner, and a certified Home to School and Master Gardener.

Ms. Jervis attended Bishops High School from 1982 to 1984 and completed high school in Brooklyn, New York.

Wayne Knight

Wayne Knight is the Manager of Financial Analysis at the Law firm of McCarter and English, LLP. Mr. Knight is a Senior Manager in the Finance Department consisting of 44 staff members across 12 offices. Mr. Knight has over 25 years of Finance and Accounting experience in various roles related to law firm finance – including Financial and Managerial Reporting, Forecasting, Budgeting, and Pension and Retirement Benefits. Wayne attended The Bishops' High School from 1977 to 1983. He holds a Bachelor's degree in Accounting and a Master of Business Administration, specializing in Finance from Saint Peter's University.

Mr. Knight is an ardent sports fan, and especially likes basketball, soccer and track and field. He also holds the distinction of being the first male alumni President of The BHS NY Tri-State Chapter, and continues to participate in Chapter activities and initiatives.

Mr. Knight resides in New Jersey.

Paul Lake

Paul Lake is the Senior Director, Cloud Business Operations at Oracle. In this role he leads a team with a book of business that includes negotiating hosting contracts, data center and infrastructure agreements, supplier management and computer software and hardware purchasing. Mr. Lake has worked in various roles at Oracle for over 20 years. Prior to his time at Oracle, he worked at the Annunico Software start up and built and trained their Customer Support team. When Annuncio was sold to PeopleSoft, Mr. Lake continued in Customer Success/Technical Support leadership positions to develop a single, consolidated high performance support team achieving satisfaction scores of over 85%.

Mr. Lake's passion for being inclusive, transparent, supportive, honest and respectful have been the foundation of his success as leader. He has worked with the California State University East Bay as a guest lecturer in leadership and change management. He has also been invited as guest speaker at the Young African Leaders Initiative on Team leadership among many other speaking engagements. Additionally, Mr. Lake is actively involved in his community as a volunteer Board Member of the Morgan Hill Open Art Studios, and as a volunteer with the City of Morgan Hill on its Building and Housing Planning Commission and Library Arts and Culture Commission.

Mr. Lake holds a Bachelor of Science in Computer Science from California State University, East Bay and a Master of Science in Engineering Management from San Jose State University, together with several certifications in Executive Leadership Training. Mr. Lake resides in California.

Jonathan Locke

Jonathan Locke is a master craftsman, artist, manufacturer, teacher, visionary and entrepreneur. He first attended craftsman classes in the United Kingdom before furthering his education at the Leeds Design Workshop in Massachusetts, and the Parson's School of Design in New York City.

Mr. Locke is an award-winning Custom Furniture Fabricator who has transformed various types of wood into elegant and versatile pieces of furniture as art. For five years, he worked for Dakota Jackson, becoming his top builder of custom furniture.

In 1990, Mr. Locke established his own company. Timehri Studios was a custom furniture manufacturing company with a team of up to ten employees, that he managed for twenty-nine years. He also taught Fundamentals of Woodworking for ten years at Parsons School of Design.

Jonathan is currently Production Manager of Sampson Mills, designing and producing curtain tracks and room dividing room partition walls. He attended The Bishops' High School from 1975 to 1981.

Mr. Locke resides in the Bronx, New York.

Joan Martin-Lake

Joan Martin-Lake is the Human Resources Director at Showa Denko Materials (America) in California overseeing over HR Services for all their subsidiary companies in the North America Region. Ms. Martin-Lake's scope covers employee acquisition and retention, developing and implementing compensation and employee benefits programs, resolving employee and management relation matters, and collaborating with HR leaders to roll out regulatory, leadership and management training for employees and staff. Ms. Martin- Lake is a 20-year veteran in the field of Human Resources Management and has found it to be a challenging, exciting career that has allowed her to express her creativity.

Ms. Martin-Lake was initially inspired to be a dietitian by a former BHS student during a presentation at a morning assembly at Bishops'. However, after three years of college, during her internship she realized that she did not want to continue in this field for the rest of her life. Consequently, she changed careers three times to fit her interests and the changing needs of her family.

Ms. Martin-Lake attended Bishops from 1970 to 1977 and holds a Bachelor of Science in Nutritional Science from Oakwood University, Huntsville, Alabama, a Master in Business Administration from California State University East Bay in Hayward, California and Multiple Teaching Credentials from California State University Monterey Bay, Seaside California. Ms. Martin-Lake resides in California.

Dianne McGowan-Brutus

Dianne McGowan-Brutus is a retired CardioThoracic ICU Nurse with more than twenty-one years' experience at SUNY Downstate Medical Center in Brooklyn. She also held the post of Librarian at the University of Guyana, and the National Agricultural Research Institute. Other positions included that of School Nurse (Theracare) with the NYC Board of Education.

Ms. McGowan-Brutus attended The Bishops' High School from 1968 to 1976. She currently lives in New York.

Reon Miller

Reon Miller is an Attorney at Law with Boston and Boston Law Firm. Prior to working as an Attorney with Boston and Boston, Mr. Miller was a paralegal with the Support for the Criminal Justice System Project with IDB Guyana, a paralegal with Boston and Boston and served as an Inservice Trainee at GTT.

Mr. Miller obtained his Bachelor of Laws at the University of Guyana and earned a Legal Education Certificate from the Hugh Wooding Law School in Trinidad and Tobago.

Outside of work Mr. Miller has a passion for the creative arts. He serves as the Creative Director for the Pan Jazz Concerts. Mr. Miller attended The Bishops' High School from 2009 to 2016. He currently resides in Guyana.

Stacey Mollison

Stacey Mollison is the President and CEO of the Libra Management Group, an organization based in Decatur, Georgia with a recently acquired office in Georgetown, Guyana. Libra Management Group specializes in Administration Management and Consulting Services, Real Estate Advisory, Asset Management Services, Construction and Property Management.

Ms. Mollison holds a Bachelor of Arts in Criminal Justice and Law from John Jay College, New York, a Master of Arts in Psychology and Professional Counseling from Argosy University, Atlanta, and a Post Graduate Certificate in Marriage and Family Therapy.

Ms. Mollison was recognized in 2010 as one of Atlanta's 40 Rising Stars by the Atlanta Business Journal. In 2014 she was recognized by the Atlanta Business League as one of Atlanta's Top 100 Women of Influence. She is a proud supporter of the Guyana Association of Georgia and the Girls in STEM program.

Ms. Mollison resides in Georgia.

Mallika Mootoo

Mallika Mootoo, M.D. is a Pediatrician and Neonatologist who has spent many years working with children and adolescents with HIV. The owner of a general pediatric private practice, Dr. Mootoo is also the Clinical Lead for the PUSH project at St Joseph Mercy and Davis Memorial Hospitals. Established in 2002, this project provides care and treatment to people living with HIV and is the first of its kind at St Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Dr. Mootoo attended The Bishops' High School from 1973 to 1978. She completed both her Medical and post-graduate degrees in Pediatrics and Neonatology, from Semmelweis Medical University in Budapest, Hungary. From 2004 to 2011 she worked with the US President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR), and the Institute of Human Virology (IHV), University of Maryland, as their Clinical Team Lead and Senior Technical Advisor for the clinical care and treatment of HIV-infected patients.

Dr. Mootoo is involved with the National AIDS Program Care and Treatment Technical Working Group, coordinating national guidelines for the treatment of HIV/AIDS in Guyana.

A member of the Sickle Cell and Thalassemia Working Group, the National Maternity Morbidity and Mortality Review (MMR) Committee, and the National Pediatric MMR Committee, Dr. Mootoo also lectures part-time in Pediatrics at several medical schools and residency programs in Guyana.

Dr. Mootoo resides in Georgetown, Guyana.

Kevin Morgan

Kevin Morgan is an Attorney-at-Law who commenced his public service career as a Labour, Occupational Safety, and Health Officer in the Department of Labour of the Ministry of Social Protection. He is currently employed with the Petroleum Program.

Mr. Morgan is qualified to practice in the courts of the English-speaking Caribbean. He also served as an educator in the field of Law at the University of the West Indies' Open Campus, St. Augustine, Trinidad.

Mr. Morgan attended The Bishops' High School from 2009 to 2011. He earned his Bachelor of Laws from The University of Guyana and a Legal Education Certificate from The Hugh Wooding Law School, Trinidad and Tobago.

Mr. Morgan currently resides in Guyana.

Cheryl Noel

After thirty-three years at the United Nations - fifteen spent at UNICEF, New York and eighteen spent in peacekeeping missions in Cambodia, The Former Yugoslavia, East Timor, Israel, and The Sudan, Cheryl Noel returned to Guyana with a focus towards mentoring Guyanese youth. In the years since her retirement in 2016, Cheryl has given motivational talks at schools, churches, and civic organizations, emphasizing the importance of developing healthy self-esteem, civic responsibility, anti-bullying, and addressing the scourge of violence against young girls and women.

In 2019, Ms. Noel and her mentees hosted “Tomorrow, Today!” - a three-day Youth Symposium attended by representatives from all of the ten regions of Guyana. In 2021, Ms. Noel founded GIRLS INNOVATING FOR TOMORROW Foundation, Inc. which aims to educate young women at the tertiary level. The Foundation currently supports five young Guyanese women on campuses across the United States, with another beginning studies in Cuba this September.

Ms. Noel is the author of THE BIRTHDAY SLEEP OVER, a children's book teaching the importance of self-love and acceptance, as well as a book of poetry entitled WHILE I WAS AWAY. She is currently working on a book of short stories based on Guyanese characters and a series for young readers.

Cheryl Noel considers it her greatest privilege to be mother to the compassionate, brilliant and talented Ebonee R. Noel-Wharton.

Karen and Kathy Norman

Karen and Kathy Norman are Co-Founders of K2K Alliance & Partners (carnival), NORMI & NORMI INC. (resort), and KEV-ABSOLU (bridal).

Born in Trinidad and Tobago, both sisters were passionate about the arts and pursued Art as an academic course at the Caribbean Examination Council (“CXC”) and the Advanced Level University of Cambridge Examination. In 1997, Karen earned the highest Art award at CXC, placing first in Art and Design. Two years later both gained acclamation from University of Cambridge for exceeding the demands of Art curriculum.

Prior to launching K2K, Karen and Kathy Norman designed kitchen textiles for Queensway Ltd of Trinidad and Tobago and produced artwork for domestic organizations there. Both sisters hold Bachelor degrees with Honors from Howard University in International Business, with concentrations in Marketing and Finance respectively. The brand “K2K” was born out of an attempt to revitalize traditional costume design and fuse high fashion with ‘mas’ design.

Beyond the carnival landscape and fashion industry, the sisters have approximately thirty years of combined experience on Wall Street in the Financial Industry. Kathy has held the positions of Global Head of Social Sustainability & Strategy, Head of Global Markets Business Management & Initiative Strategy. She has covered Asia Pacific Strategy, Investment Banking Strategy, and Investment Banking Advisory with a focus in Power & Utilities and Renewables. Similarly, Karen has held positions in Investor Relations, Corporate Banking covering Project Finance in the Oil & Gas Sector and Investment Banking Advisory, covering Media & Telecom and Restructuring.

Philip Peroune

Philip Peroune is Director of International Student SEVIS Compliance and Principal Designated School Official, at Monroe College, New Rochelle, New York. His primary focus is on students with visa issues.

Prior to becoming a Student Advisor and in addition to the position of International Admissions Officer, he held the posts of Career Advisor and Internship Coordinator. Through his job he has travelled extensively across the USA, Central America, the Middle East, Turkey and the Caribbean.

Mr. Peroune attended The Bishops’ High School from 1975 to 1980. He holds a Bachelor's in Professional Studies with an emphasis on Business Administration, and a Master of Science in Higher Education Administration, both from Barry University, Florida. He is the current President of The Bishops’ High School Alumni Association Tri-State Chapter. Prior to being elected president in June 2021, he served as Vice-President and Treasurer of the Chapter.

Mr. Peroune lives in New York.

Haslyn Peters

Haslyn Peters is a Commercial Airline Pilot with over twenty years of experience in the field of Aviation.

He attended The Bishops' High School from Forms One to Upper Sixth, and went on to earn a Bachelor of Science Degree in Aeronautics from Liberty University.

His passion for flying which began at a very young age, motivated him to earn his Private Pilot's License at Briko Air Services in Trinidad. He later joined the Guyana Defence Force, where he was the Best Graduating Student on the Standard Officers Course #30, and flew as a Military Pilot.

Mr. Peters migrated to the USA where he flew for several Regional Airlines. He is currently a First Officer at a major airline.

Haslyn also has a wealth of experience in youth leadership, serving as a Boy Scouts Leader, Youth Group Leader and a Life Coach. He also volunteers as a mentor at the Boys and Girls Association in North Carolina.

Shiromani Quail

Shiromani Quail is a Chartered Accountant as well as a Business and Finance Professional, who worked for many years with a top UK accountancy firm that specialized in taxation and growth of owner-managed businesses. She subsequently joined a start-up healthcare group, and is the HR and Finance Director responsible for the recruitment, interviewing and onboarding process for over 120 members of the team at any one time. Working with a small management team planning and implementing the business strategy for the company, she is responsible for overseeing the financial operations of the business.

Ms. Quail is also a non-Executive Director of an oral healthcare brand which has a large online presence as well as being sold in stores within the UK. She is also a director of an investment property company, managing a substantial portfolio of properties in the UK.

Shiromani attended The Bishops' High School from 1972 to 1978, and Queen's College from 1978 to 1980. She holds a Bachelor of Commerce in Accountancy and Financial Management from Concordia University, Canada. She is a Member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of England and Wales (ICAEW), and is also a Fellow of that Institute (FCA) as well as a Business and Finance Professional (BFP).

She currently resides in London, England.

Vani Ramnarain

Vani Ramnarain is a graduating student of John Jay college with a Bachelor of Science in Molecular Biology. Ms. Ramnarain aims to pursue her Masters in Forensic Science.

A previous Head Prefect and Dewar House Captain, she attended The Bishops' High School from 2011 to 2018.

Donna Ramsammy-James

Donna Ramsammy-James is the owner and principal designer of Shape Custom Creations, Guyana. She attended The Bishops' High School from 1966 to 1972. In addition to being a well-known designer, Mrs. Ramsammy-James is also a choreographer of a variety of different dance forms.

Mrs. Ramsammy-James lived in Kenya for twelve years, during which time her innate sense of style was enhanced by her exposure to African designs and color. She is committed to mentoring aspiring designers and young adults.

Mrs. Ramsammy-James resides in Guyana.

Floyd Rodney

Floyd Rodney is the Director of Fixed Internal Networks at Guyana Telephone and Telegraph Co., where he has been employed since 1992.

Mr. Rodney attended the University of Guyana from 1995 to 2000, and the University of the West Indies from 2005 to 2006.

Dinah Sah

Dr. Dinah Sah has thirty years of experience in research and drug development in the biotechnology industry, and was most recently Chief Scientific Officer at Voyager Therapeutics. She currently serves on Scientific Advisory Boards and Boards of biotech, venture capital and non-profit disease organizations.

Her accomplishments include leadership of multiple programs from early research through Phase 1 clinical trials, which led to the approval of the first RNAi drug ONPATRO.

Dr. Sah is an inventor on more than thirty-five patents, and has published in Nature Medicine, PNAS, and the New England Journal of Medicine. She received a B.S. in Biology from MIT and a Ph.D. in Neurobiology from Harvard University. Dr. Sah is Co-Executive Director of the Caribbean Science Foundation, Director of the Student Program for Innovation in Science and Engineering (SPISE), and Director and President of the Caribbean Diaspora for Science, Technology and Innovation – New England (CADSTI-NE).

Dinah lives in Massachusetts.

Deomattie Seeram

Deomattie Seeram is the Manager, Scholarship Application at the Public Service Ministry, Guyana. Prior to this role, Ms. Seeram served as a Manager with Seeram Civil Engineering and Woodworking Establishment, as the Admin/Projects Coordinator at Advertising and Marketing Services Ltd., and as a Technical Assistant with the Ministry of Finance in Guyana.

Ms. Seeram obtained a Bachelor of Social Sciences Management and a Master of Business Administration (MBA) from the University of Guyana.

Ms. Seeram resides in Guyana.

Sharon Small

Sharon O. Small Esq. is Director, Counsel Market Access - Govt. Pricing & Policy at Novartis Pharmaceuticals Corporation where she serves as a key member of the Legal team. Sharon delivers practical legal advice to C-Suite Executives and other clients in the Market Access, US Drug Pricing and Govt. Policy teams to help them achieve business goals.

Prior to joining Novartis, Sharon was Counsel in Life Sciences Practices Group at the law firm of Porzio Bromberg & Newman, P.C. She also held roles as in-house counsel at Celgene Corporation (seconded) and Merck & Co., Inc.

Sharon earned her Juris Doctorate from the University of Pennsylvania Law School, her Bachelor of Science Degree, magna cum laude, from Fairleigh Dickinson University and a Certificate in Health Care Compliance from Seton Hall University Law School. Sharon serves on committees at professional organizations such as the American Health Lawyers Association and the Garden State Bar Association. She regularly speaks on Compliance topics in the pharmaceutical industry, and mentors young lawyers and law students. She also works to promote diversity in the legal profession and was recently appointed to the board of the New Jersey Women Lawyers Association as a Diversity Committee Co-Director. Committed to pro bono and community service, she serves as a member of the board of Legal Services of Northwest Jersey and volunteers her time in their Tenancy and Autonomy Clinics. She also serves on leadership committees at her church and volunteers her time with Homefront, an organization dedicated to ending homelessness in New Jersey.

Sharon attended The Bishops' High School from 1977 to 1984. She has two adult children and enjoys reading, sports and travel.

Keon Smith

Mr. Keon Smith is a 2002 graduate of St. Rose's High School and the current elected President of the St. Rose's Old Students Association Guyana.

Mr. Smith is also a Director at ActionINVEST Caribbean Inc., and Certified Business Coach under the ActionCOACH Guyana franchise.

His academic background includes Business Management & Accountancy. He is a Distinguished Toastmaster and IVLP Alumni (International Visitors Leadership Program), and a member of the Young Leaders of the Americas Initiative.

He is also the recipient of the 40Under40 Award for Entrepreneurship.

Mr. Smith lives in Guyana.

Amanda St Aubyn

Amanda St Aubyn is a Senior Banker with a thirty-nine-year accomplished career with Scotiabank in Guyana and Canada. She is experienced in strategic and business planning and execution, corporate, commercial, small business and retail sales and marketing, talent management, and overall employee development, to drive and deliver performance results.

Amanda has been successful in deepening customer relationships and managing risk, while optimizing and building markets in compliance with regulatory requirements.

She attended The Bishops' High School from 1973 to 1980.

Ms. St Aubyn lives in Toronto, Canada.

Dingaen Stephenson, Esq.

Dingaen Stephenson, Esq. is a qualified barrister with over twenty-five years of experience in private practice, government service and industry. Following five years of court practice, he moved in-house and is currently employed as a Senior Investment Bank Lawyer.

Mr. Stephenson attended Bishops' High School from 1981 to 1984. He was a member of the inaugural committee for the BHS UK Alumni Association, of which he is also a member.

Mr. Stephenson resides in London, England.

Junette Anne Stuart

Junette Anne Stuart is CEO, Designer, Founder and Engineer with Junshaznya's World of Fashion and Interior Designing Enterprise. Ms. Stuart is a professional business consultant, fashion and beauty expert. Her previous experience includes community and leadership development, and capacity building for Non-Profits and Work Force Development Institutions/Organizations. She has led workshops at UNESCO, and has worked as a trainer with USAID.

She is passionate about encouraging young girls and women to engage in some form of Technical and Vocational Occupations or Skill sets. This led her to form a new business arm within her company, Junshazyna's Academy of Designing & Technology. The mission of this new arm is to continually inspire trainees to become competent fashion designers, utilizing technology with the goal to produce creative entrepreneurial leaders with sustainable livelihoods.

Professionally, Ms. Stuart is Trustee at Women Entrepreneurs Network of the Caribbean (WENC) – Guyana, and External Assessor and External Verifier for the Council for Technical and Vocational Education and Training (TVET). She is the immediate past President for WENC and is an Executive Member (Treasurer) of WEN – Caribbean – Guyana. Ms. Stuart resides in Guyana.

Josephine Tapp

Josephine Tapp is a professional with a diverse background and a great desire to create a positive impact. Born to a "construction power couple", Josephine spent her holidays and weekends traveling across Guyana and visiting construction sites with a view to a career in that field, before deciding to study Law as an alternative.

An invitation by one of her professors to assist in one of his publications resulted in her being offered the position of Tax Supervisor at his legal and tax firm. While there, she provided tax and corporate advice to a number of local and foreign companies.

After her father's passing, Josephine returned to her family's business and worked alongside her mother to manage and enhance B&J Civil Works. Together, they are crafting a legacy of excellence and integrity within the construction sector. Ms. Tapp resides in Guyana.

Yuniya Van Gronigen

Yuniya Van Gronigen attended The Bishops' High School from 1966 to 1974. She graduated from Long Island University, Brooklyn, New York, with a B.Sc., then obtained a M.A. from Teachers College, Columbia University, New York, New York. She then attended Brooklyn Law School where she earned a Juris Doctor Degree. She has served as a volunteer in several programs including serving as a Literacy Volunteer with the Brooklyn Public Library in Brooklyn, NY, and volunteering with the Sickie Cell Foundation in Jamaica, NY. She has held a variety of jobs including serving as a teacher and currently works with the federal government.

Yuniya resides in New York.

Adiola Walcott

Adiola Walcott is a young Guyanese professional invested in the many aspects surrounding Climate Change. In addition to lecturing in the Department of Earth and Environmental Sciences at the University of Guyana, Adiola has been instrumental in the design and implementation of a postgraduate course on Carbon Management now being offered there. Her role as Educator also positions her to influence, mentor and prepare the emerging younger generation with the knowledge and innovative skill-building.

Prior to being in the classroom, Adiola served as a Technical Officer in the Office of Climate Change within the Office of the President. Ms. Walcott's activism began before 2019 when she was selected as a representative at the Youth4 Climate Forum in Milan. In 2019 she represented Guyana at the Annual International Climate Change Conference.

Adiola is also an active volunteer with organizations and youth programs in Guyana and the region. These include Guyana Youth and Environment Network, and the Caribbean Youth Climate Council, among others.

Ms. Walcott lives in Guyana.

Grace Waldron-White

Grace White, M.B.B.S., M.Sc. attended the Bishops' High School during the 1980s. She holds a degree in Biology from the University of Guyana and a medical degree from the University's School of Medicine. Dr. White also holds a Master's in Internal Medicine with the first batch of Specialists at the Georgetown Public Hospital Corporation (GPHC). She also completed an Internal Medicine Fellowship with a focus on Chronic Diseases and Outpatient Medicine, at McMaster University, Canada. She now heads up the reform effort at the Internal Medicine Clinic at GPHC and is zealous about delivering world-class clinical care to all Guyanese.

An Associate Professor with the University of Guyana School of Medicine, Dr. White is actively involved in the medical education of both medical students and residents. She is passionate about the global resolve against Non-Communicable Diseases (NCDs), and recently served as Vice-Chairman of the Presidential National NCD Commission. Other career interests include Global Medicine, Medical Research and Quality Improvement in Medical Care.

Dr. White is a devout Christian and participates in many faith-based initiatives throughout her life. A past member of Bishops' Bible Club, she also served as its President. She currently runs ACT-UP, a community-based program training youths in dance, drama and singing, while promoting life-skills and presenting the gospel.

Dr. White resides in Georgetown, Guyana.

Nicholas Waldron

Nicholas Waldron, D.V.M. is a private Veterinary Practitioner and owner of Pets2000 Veterinary Clinic and Consultancy in Georgetown, Guyana. His practice covers a wide variety of veterinary services both locally and regionally, including ongoing medical care, routine and emergency surgery for pets, and other professional and veterinary consultative services. Prior to embarking on private practice, Dr. Waldron was Chief Veterinary Officer, Department of Agriculture in Montserrat and Programme Director in the Ministry of Agriculture in Guyana. He is Past Vice-Chairman and Board Member of the Guyana Livestock Development Authority.

Dr. Waldron held the positions of part time Lecturer in Surgical Procedures and External Examiner for Animal Health at the Guyana School of Agriculture. He is a lifetime member and past Executive Committee member of the Guyana Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (GSPCA).

Dr. Waldron attended Queen's College from 1979 to 1985. He holds a Diploma in Animal Health and Veterinary Public Health from The Regional Education Programme for Animal Health Assistants, Guyana, a Doctorate in Veterinary Medicine from Federal University of Santa Maria, Brazil, and a Master of Science degree specializing in Livestock Health and Production from the Royal Veterinary College, University of London.

Dr Waldron resides in Georgetown, Guyana.

Andrea Watson-James

Andrea Watson-James is Co-Founder, President and CEO of Roraima Consulting Inc (RCI), a procurement and management consulting company based in New York. She is also a Life Coach, certified by Mindvalley, is associated with Positive Intelligence (www.positiveintelligence.com) and incorporates their methodology in her Life and Business Coaching.

She worked for several years at the Caribbean Community (CARICOM) Secretariat, in statistics, transportation policy and organizational development and subsequently migrated to the United States.

Andrea served as adjunct faculty member at the University of the West Indies, Cave Hill, Barbados, from 2000 to 2012, facilitating various in-person and online courses in Behavioral Sciences, Leadership, Negotiation Skills, Leading Organizations through People and Organizational Development at the Executive Master's in Business Administration (EMBA) level.

The Caribbean American Chamber of Commerce and Industry, Inc. honored Ms. Watson-James by inducting her as a Small Business Visionary. She is also a member of various professional associations.

Ms. Watson-James attended The Bishops' High School from 1961 to 1968. She holds a Bachelor's in Social Sciences (Economics) from the University of Guyana and a Master's in Business Administration from the Cave Hill School of Business, University of the West Indies. She also holds a post-graduate Diploma in Professional Shipping from the Norwegian Shipping Academy.

Andrea currently lives in New York.

Rowen Willabus

Rowen Willabus is a Guyanese tech enthusiast, business owner, and Chairman of the Black Entrepreneurs Association (BEA).

He is also co-founder of IntellectStorm , an ICT solutions and marketing company that began in 2014 and currently employs more than fifteen young Guyanese.

Mr. Willabus is committed to contributing to the local entrepreneurial ecosystem, and maintaining a safe space for black-owned businesses in Guyana. The Black Entrepreneurs Association currently comprises more than two hundred black-owned businesses in Guyana.

He currently lives in Guyana.

Lady Adele Williams-Sewell

Lady Adele Sewell MBE attended Bishops' from 1974 to 1978, completing secondary school in England. Adele graduated from the University of Surrey with a degree in Physics.

Adele completed a 2-year graduate management training course with the UK's biggest retailer before pursuing a 3-month computer programming and business analysis conversion course. A 20-year career in technology showed Adele being promoted from programmer to analyst, project leader, manager, and senior manager at large organisations.

All was going well until Adele was diagnosed with breast cancer in 1999 and then ovarian cancer in 2007. This led to a change in trajectory creating a new role as a volunteer fund raiser, and support group leader.

In 2020 Adele was named as the "Amazing Woman for the South East & South West" of the UK. She was awarded the M.B.E. in the King's New Year's Honours List 2023. Adele is married to Lord Tony Sewell CBE and they have a daughter.

Yvette Williams

Yvette Williams, M.D. is a recently retired Lead Trainer and Subject Matter Expert for the Breast Care Registry of the US Veterans' Administration (VA), Office of Women's Health. She was a key member on the VA's Electronic Health Record Modernization Team. Her professional concentrations were primary care and women's health, clinical informatics, registries and health care data systems.

Dr. Williams joined the VA in 1993, holding various roles in the Louisville and Atlanta VA offices. In 1996 she joined the faculty of General Internal Medicine at Emory University. While still involved with Primary Care at the VA in Atlanta, she added the role of chronic disease management with an emphasis on diabetes and women's health, to her curriculum.

In 2000, Dr Williams spearheaded the establishment of the Comprehensive Women's Primary Care Clinic at the Atlanta VA Medical Center, serving as Team Leader until 2005. She also developed a program in 2004 to improve performance on VA Chronic Disease measures, using the VA's corporate database to "profile patients prospectively".

Dr. Williams attended BHS from 1970 to 1977. She holds a medical degree from the University of the West Indies, Mona, and a Master's in Public Health from Johns Hopkins Bloomberg School of Public Health. She currently resides in St Lucia.